Willowcrest Librarian Tells Aims Of Program

Mrs. Roger Wellman, who is in charge of the library at Willowcrest school, spoke on "Library Service in the Mokena Area" before the Joliet lodge of the Loyal Order of the Women of the Moose, chapter 84, on Nov. 9.

Mrs. Wellman explained that the school library provides periodicals, local newspapers, and audio-visual equipment as well as books. It offers services to all the Mokena schools, public and private, and is open to the general public on Monday evenings.

Frankfort township is now in the process of developing interest and support for public library services which will give more extensive library opportunities to the community at large, providing not only books for general reading but the more specialized and expensive books for interest groups such as home decorating, home improvement, antiques, gardening and as many others as may be requested, also periodicals and newspapers as the desire may be. There are also the possibilities of film service, art exhibits, special reference help on questions people may wish to ask on almost any subject.

Mrs. Wellman has been active not only in her interest in the school library but also in support of the more extensive services that only a public library can provide.

To Give Concert Sunday

The Frankfort grade school band and chorus will present their fall concert at the school on Sunday, Nov. 21, at 2 o'clock.

Miss Sharon Connolly, vocal instructor, and Perry Friedman, director of the band, will combine efforts in the singing and playing of Schubert's "Ave Maria".

Many new melodies, as well as old standards, will be heard.

There is no admission charge and the concert is open to all persons in the area.

Also on the program will be a trombone trio from the Lincoln-Way high school band under the direction of Robert Taylor, and a group from the Lincoln-Way chorus directed by Tom Olson, will sing.

Burglars

Hit Twice At Mokena

Burglars hit two Mokena business places last Thursday and Friday.

The Tomahawk restaurant operated by Mrs. Mary Holman on Wolf rd. was entered sometime between midnight and 4:30 a.m. Thursday morning. The break-in was discovered when a bakery salesman stopped to make a delivery. A small amount of money was taken from the cash register.

The other burglary occurred at the Standard Oil Station, Wolf rd., sometime Thursday night or early Friday morning. According to the report of Police Chief Roy Newton the thieves carried off 11 tires and what cash there may have been in the soft drink and cigaret machines. The machines apparently were opened by someone experienced in the work, Chief Newton said.

Deputy Sheriff Thomas Cavanaugh took fingerprints.

Tornado Destroys, Damages Homes But Spares Lives

The tornado--or tornadoes some say--that ripped a destructive path thru the counties of LaSalle, Grundy, Will and Cook, last Friday caused considerable damage in outlying parts of New Lenox and Frankfort townships but spared the village of Mokena and Frankfort. Orland Park experienced a near miss when the violent storm whirled its way into Tinley Park between 167th and 170th streets.

Hail and heavy rains lashed Orland as it did other sections and there were heavy winds. A large aluminum awning crashed into the front of a home on 82nd st., across from Silver Lake Country club but no one knew where it came from.

Several homes were hard hit in the New Lenox and Mokena areas but there were no serious injuries.

James Florry, of Mokena was treated at Silver Cross hospital, for cuts and bruises experienced when a section of house trailer used for an office at the I-80 bridge construction site on U.S. 30 about a mile west of New Lenox, came crashing down on the cab of his truck. He was not hospitalized.

Mrs. Ida White, Jones rd., Arby Hills, was treated at Hedges clinic in Frankfort for lacerations and bruises suffered when the tornado carried off the roof of her son's home and pushed in the front wall, filling the living room with bricks and splinters. Her grandson, Mark, 9, escaped hurt. Her son, Ted White and his wife were not at home at the time.

A neighbor, Ted Dykstra, saw the funnel cloud sweeping toward the White home and had climbed in his car with the intention of getting Mrs. White and Mark away before the tornado hit but he didn't get there in time. He pointed out that had his car been in front of the home it probably would have been hurled into the dwelling with

L-W Board Sets Date Of Bond Election - Dec. 18

The Lincoln - Way high school board, which has been considering plans for an addition to the present school, has decided to seek public approval of a $495,000 bond issue to defray the cost of the project.

The board has set Dec. 18, as the date for the referendum.

Plans call for 12 academic classrooms; one room for remedial reading classes; one special education room (a new state law requires special education classes when and where needed, it was explained); enlargement of the vocational agriculture department; an addition to the industrial arts department for drafting and electronics. An additional well also is a necessity, it was explained, since the daily consumption of water has increased to 35,000 gallons a day and the Illinois department of health has notified the board that a new sewage system is required since the present plant was designed for only 600 students. The present re-enrollment is more than twice that figure.

It also was pointed out that the agriculture department enrollment has doubled so that the farm shop space is entirely inadequate and far below standard.

"After thoroly studying the present and future enrollment figures, plus carefully evaluating the present building utilization, the board members saw no other alternative to the problem but to recommend the planned addition," a spokesman stated. "Even starting now with these future classrooms, there is considerable doubt any would be completed by next September.

"Since the building is now being used to capacity and the school day already lengthened," the spokesman continued, "there isn't much else to be done. Approximately 300 students in the upper one-third academically are permitted to take a fifth subject. Without more room this worthwhile program would have to be discontinued. Also several hundred students would be deprived of the elective subjects requested because certain classrooms can accommodate only a fixed number of students. Plans for helping those in the lower one-third thru special courses would be greatly retarded.

"Thru the years, the board has asked only for absolute essentials. There have been no 'frills.' This proposed addition will be the last for the present plant. In the future a separate building will have to be constructed, whether on the present site or in another location.

"The administration and board of education and students have a school and building of which they are extremely proud. They have carefully guarded the physical property and equipment, teaching the students to respect what has been so generously provided. Our students do appreciate your efforts. We know taxes are high but believe your tax dollar is being carefully guarded and conservatively spent. Your administration has always endeavored to provide the best school possible with the fund available."

Supt. A. Hunter Chapman reported to the board that the financial position of Lincoln-Way district is the best that it has been since it was organized in 1951.

For many years, he said, the district was bonded to the limit -- 5 per cent of the equalized assessed valuation. The auditor's report shows that as of now the bonded indebtedness amounts to 3.5% of the district's valuation. Dollar-wise the bonded debt is $2,045,000. The original bond issue of $1,200,000 has been reduced to $485,000.

The Lincoln-Way district tax rate was $1.686 in 1963 and $1.655 this past year, Chapman stated. The present assessed valuation is $57,566,094.

Villages To Discuss Transportation Needs

A meeting of village board, plan commission, zoning board and industrial committee members is scheduled for Dec. 6 in the village hall for a discussion of highway and transportation plans for the area. The Frankfort group will meet with the men in charge of the transportation study for the Joliet area.

A similar meeting is to take place at Mokena the night of Nov. 29 and at New Lenox on Dec. 1.

At the beginning Mokena was not included in the transportation study setup but Frankfort and New Lenox have been in the project since the beginning.

At the coming meetings future highway needs to meet future population needs in the area will be discussed. Indications are, according to village officials, that unless a community joins in with these state and federal people they will not get any help, financial or otherwise, with their road problems.

ROOFLESS AND WINDOWLESS was the home of Jay Jelnick, (above) Banbury, New Lenox township, after the tornado whirled by last Friday. The Jelicks were not home at the time. That stuff on the trees in the picture below is insulation from the house that was blown about the landscape. (Graphic Newspapers photos)

the likelihood that the occupants of the house might have been killed or more seriously injured.

The tornado apparently worked its way from Streator thru several sections of Grundy county before striking Will county near Chanahan where a woman was killed and her husband critically injured. The funnel worked its way thru Preston Heights and Sugar Creek, residential developments, south of Joliet and then whirled toward New Lenox.

The tornado went around in back of Providence high school, destroying a shed there, and then made a shambles of the construction offices located in trailers at the I-80 span over U.S. 30. One of the construction crew was battered about considerably before a trailer disintegrated but he refused to go to a hospital or doctor. Blueprints and specifications littered the area.

Electric lines running parallel with the Rock Island railroad at that point were brought down in a tangle on the tracks and all trains were held up for more than an hour until the tracks could be cleared.

The tornado then veered to the north and sailed over Banbury, a housing development north and west of New Lenox. It licked the shingles off the roof of the Harold Dubien home. Next door, to the west is the home of Jay Jelnick. The roof was swept away and the windows wrecked but fortunately no members of the family were home.

Angling further north and eastward the tornado sailed above ground until Oakbrook, a subdivision off U.S. 6, just southwest of Marley. There it leveled the brick home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hammerstein, on Richard ave. The only thing left is the garage which was under the house in a hillside, and a vent.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammerstein were not at home and their five children were in Oakview school at New Lenox.

Lifting over the other homes in the development the tornado made a series of giant leaps to strike the Ray Morris home at Josephine and Marshall court, Rolling Heights.

Mrs. Henry Noodwang and Mrs. James Marti, of Mokena, had gone there to visit Mrs. Helen Morris, mother of Ray, who has an apartment on the lowest level of a tri-level home. Mrs. Geneva Morris had just put her 2-year-old son Billy to bed in a room on the top floor. Her daughter, Linda, 5, was playing about the house. A neighbor with three children came running in crying out, "It's going to get us."

"We thought at first that a dog was after them," Mrs. Noodwang said, "and then this lady said 'tornado' and pointed out. Looking from the kitchen window we could see this monstrous black funnel cloud coming. It was dipping to the ground and then lifting.

"Geneva ran upstairs and brought the baby down. The black cloud suddenly disappeared and right back of it was a white, graying funnel that came rushing straight at us. I thought ... I will fall down and then I will be dead. We could see the cloud was coming right at us so we ran into the living room. That has two floors above us. The noise was awful. It was a roaring sound, like a hundred trains all coming at once.

"The house shook and the roof--we discovered later--was lifted about three feet and then shifted to one side so that a chandelier that had been in the center of a room was outside the wall of the house. Then the rain and hail swept in."

The funnel next took the White home and then roared on to the east. It lifted over other houses in its path but dropped down near Wolf rd. to destroy a corn crib and chicken house on the Jim Murdock farm.

From there the tornado passed on to Tinley Park where it leveled perhaps a dozen homes besides damaging many others.

The Small Business Administration has declared the sections struck by the tornado Friday as a disaster area, according to word received Tuesday from Congressman Edward Derwinski (R-4th) and it will have an office set up in Joliet today in the Chamber of Commerce office at 71 N. Ottawa st. The office will be manned every Thursday until further notice. The telephone number there is 815-727-5371. Persons whose property was damaged and uninsured can make application for loans that will run 30 years and carry an interest charge of 3%. Persons can also apply for such loans at the Small Busi-

ALL THAT'S LEFT of the Charles Hammerstein home on Richard ave., Oak Brook, New Lenox township, after Friday's tornado, is just what you see here, the garage doors and the vent pipe. The rest of the brick residence was leveled by the wind. Fortunately no one was at home at the time. (Graphic Newspapers Photo)

Funeral Last Saturday For Traffic Fatality

Funeral services for Mrs. Maenelle W. Newsome, 38, of West Circle drive, Lincolnwood, New Lenox township, Will County's 59th traffic fatality, were conducted Saturday afternoon (Nov. 13) at the Baskerville chapel, Lincoln highway and Roberts rd. The Rev. Leonard Reinke, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, New Lenox, officiated. Interment was in Evergreen Memorial Park cemetery, Chicago.

The Newsomes have made their home in New Lenox township since 1952, having come there from Chicago. Mrs. Newsome was a supervisor in the traffic department of Illinois Bell Telephone Co. She was in charge of information service.

Besides her husband, Vernon E., a die maker at the Ford plant, Chicago Heights, Mrs. Newsome is survived by a son, Robert, 16, a junior at Lincoln-Way high school; two daughters, Marilyn, 13, and Jaclyn, 9; her mother, Mrs. Mattie Geiger, of Gulfport, Miss., and one brother, Rayford, also of Gulfport.

Mrs. Newsome was enroute home from a social gathering of Bell employees on the Joliet westside around 1:30 last Thursday morning (Nov. 11) when her car crashed thru a gate at the west end of the Jackson street bridge, as the span was being lifted for a tow of barges. There is an interval of about 20 seconds in the course of a lift when a car could plunge thru the opening, it was said. Mrs. Newsome's car plunged thru.

The tug, Calumet, that was pushing the tow stood by for some three hours and helped raise the car from 20 feet of water. A cable from the tug was passed around the car and it was raised. On the first try the car slipped back in the water but not before Mrs. Newsome's body was recovered.

The recovery was made around 4:30 a.m.

Mr. Newsome was at work at the time and identification of the victim and the car was made by the son, Robert.

MRS. NEWSOME

Date of the inquest has not been set yet by Coroner Willard G. Blood, who was present when the body was recovered.

New Vo-Ag Act Boosts Program At Lincoln-Way

The New Vocational Act, sponsored by the federal government, is providing new impetus in Lincoln-Way's vocational agriculture program according to Joseph Kruzich, assistant principal. The program, under the direction of Robert Van Rheaden and assisted by Eugene Wagner, is divided into two phases. One phase is the on-the-job training program and the other is the work-study Program. As a result of these new programs, the enrollment has more than doubled over last year.

In the on-the-job training program, students are excused from school in the afternoon to work in business related to agriculture. In this way the business becomes an additional school laboratory where students can gain further knowledge and skills.

Some of the businesses where students are employed include, farm machinery and equipment, grain and feed, building materials, golf courses, landscaping, nurseries, and carpentry shops.

Students are paid a training wage for hours they work on the job. Those participating in this program are Jim Jensen, Terry Seggebruch, Allen Seeman, Bill Willard, Larry Link and Bruce Patterson.

Subjects that are studied in the classroom relative to this program include opportunities in agriculture production, job procurement procedure, arithmetic skills, human relations, job applications and interviews, and how businesses are organized. In this way students who do not intend to go on to college are prepared for a job when they have completed high school, and students who plan on a college education achieve a broader background with emphasis on experience as a preparation for college.

The work-study program, which is reimbursed by the state and federal government, is similar in that it also provides experience to supplement the classroom training. Here the students work as shop assistants in the VO-Ag classes, they do landscaping on the high school campus, and some tasks of a mechanical nature.

Students are paid an hourly wage rate which is reimbursed 100% by the state and federal government under the Vocational Act. Those participating in this program are Terry Seggebruch, Allen Seeman, Bob Gast, Darold Schmeckpepper, Larry Link and Fred Cartright.

Lincoln-Way high school was one of the first schools in the state to qualify under this new program.

FFA Members Get Tips On Safety In Hunting

Safety in hunting was the timely topic offered at the recent meeting of the Lincoln - Way chapter of Future Farmers of America.

The speaker was Gary Erisman, of County Companies, who gave a demonstration on how to handle guns without injury to one's self or his companions.

He also read some newspaper clippings concerned with hunting accidents last year to illustrate some of his points. He also reminded the boys of the law regarding transport of guns in cars -- they must be unloaded, broken and cased.

Arbury Hills Cub Scouts Plan Ahead

"A boy does what he knows, he is what he does; and what he is going to be, he is now becoming."

Accepting this proverb as their official philosophy, the recently appointed Executive Committee members of Cub Scout Pack 10, located at Arbury Hills, held their second organizational and planning meeting on Sunday, Oct. 31, at the home of Emery Mann, cubmaster.

From all indications, the group, under Mr. Mann's leadership, is enthusiastically determined to continue the progress made by ex-cubmaster Gene Pasky in previous years. Many of the members of the committee and Den Mothers attended the scout leadership training program to be conducted by the Blackhawk District, Rainbow Council at Joliet Nov. 14 for Cub Scout leaders in the Joliet area.

Mr. and Mrs. McGowan,

Frankfort Police File Report

Frankfort's police chief, Ted Massey, and his officers logged 1,663 miles in the squad car in October, according to the report made to the village board by James McLemore, chairman of the police committee.

Forty arrest tickets for alleged traffic violations were issued and 35 warning tickets given out. Eleven investigations were made. Escorts were furnished for ambulance and fire runs and a funeral.

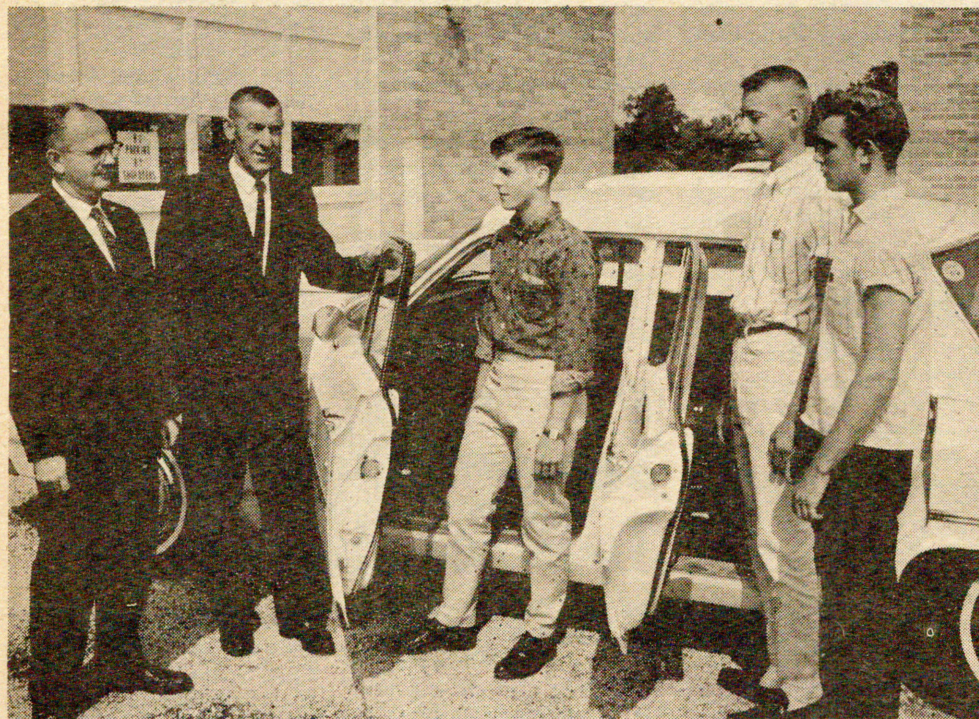

Chief Massey attended three schools, including one treating on juvenile problems. Village Attorney August Santoro said the police are writing good tickets in traffic cases because he has been winning contested cases.

co-chairmen in charge of achievements, announced that a solemn candlelight ceremony is scheduled for the next Pack Meeting at 7 p.m. on Nov. 18, during which the parents of eligible Cub Scouts will award Bobcat pins to their scouts and will apply their neckerchiefs as symbols of achievement. This ceremony, in addition to the program being planned by H. J. Neumayer, should provide a memorable meeting that all scouts and parents should attend, if possible.

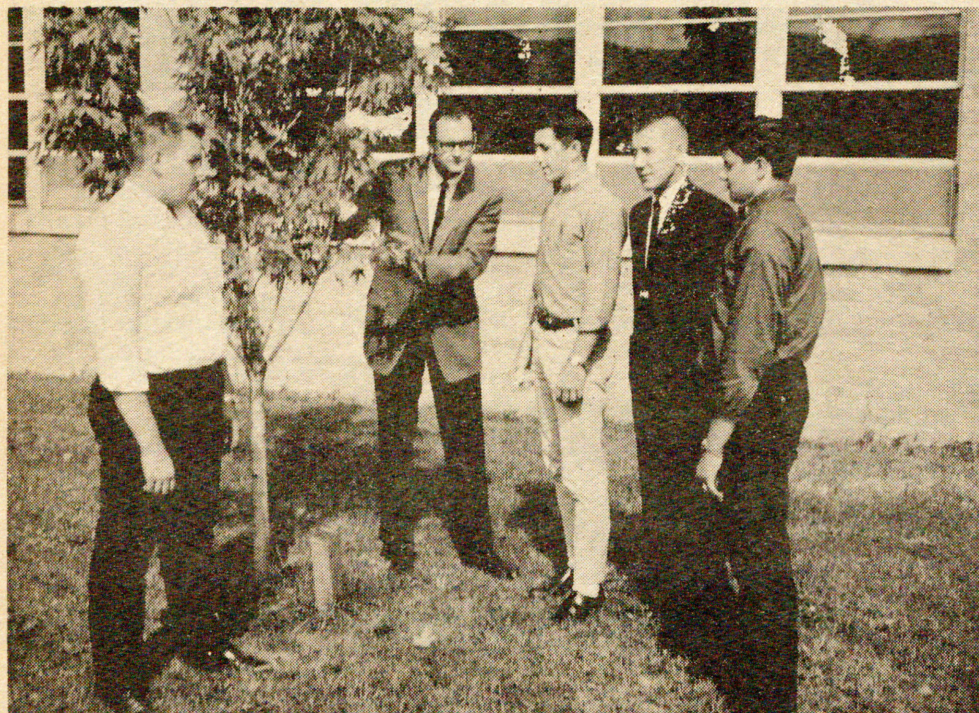

In all cub scout award events, it is normal to include both the parents in the ceremonies to provide the family pride that should accompany such an occasion. For this reason, Cubmaster Mann requests that thruout the year, if any parents are unable to attend a meeting at which their scout is scheduled to receive an award, they notify him at 479-5102, so alternate plans for awarding the achievement can be made.

John Jager, chairman in charge of programming outings, announced the weiner roast to be held at dusk on Nov. 20. The pack will supply hot drinks, but the Cubs and their fathers are requested to supply their own weiners plus some extra which we expect the fathers to lose in the campfire. The committee hopes that many cub scouts and their fathers will take advantage of the rare opportunity for contemplation and communication that only a campfire at dusk, a scout, and his father can provide.

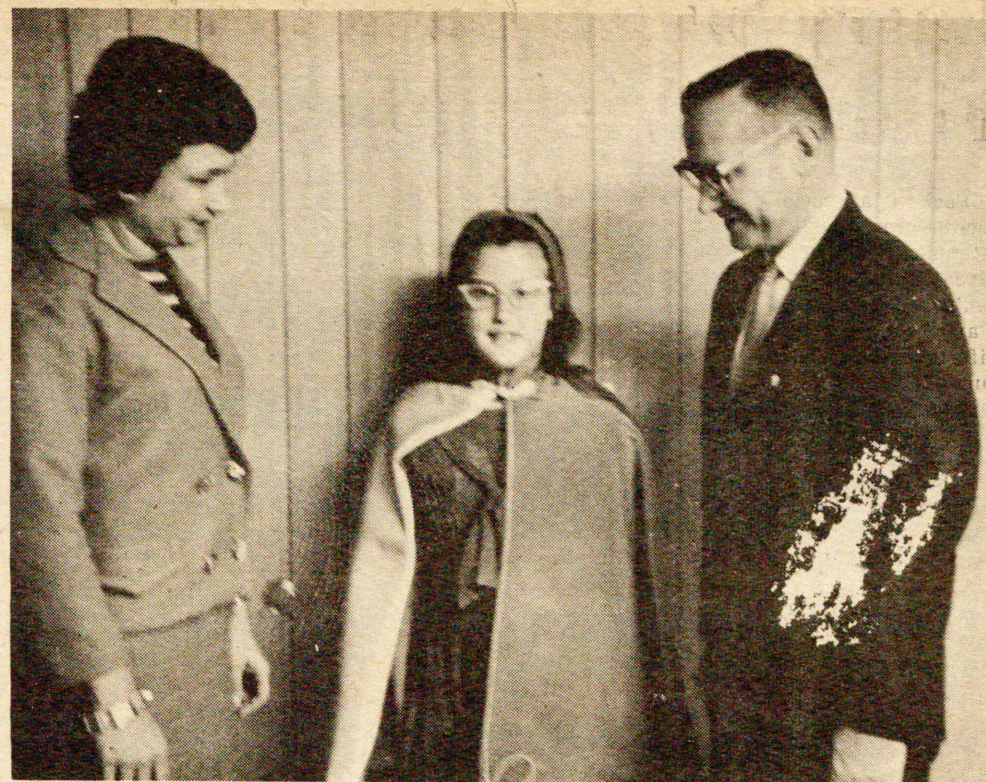

Cubmaster Mann and his assistant, Mr. Cronos, are developing plans for Pack Christmas activities which will be presented to the executive committee at its next meeting on Nov. 28.

Larry Smith Back From Filming Vietnamese War

Back in Jacksonville, Fla. again after assignment in Vietnam for American Broadcasting Co. TV, Larry Smith, formerly of Orland Park, told reporters that his life there was quite a mixture of country club and jungle.

"It was very strange," he was quoted, "to be in a jungle one day and the next day be at a club, eating by a swimming pool and watching those beautiful girls in bikinis."

Smith, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund V. Smith reside on 108th ave., is a free lance photographer whose services are in demand by movie, television and other news media.

In Vietnam he was working with Frank Reynolds, a news commentator with ABC and the pair received an award for a half-hour show dealing with the Vietnamese Ranger forces. They were with the Rangers for two weeks.

"They had a mud fort," Smith recalled, "that looked like something out of the French Foreign Legion."

One day Reynolds was interviewing the American adviser to the outfit. The interview took place on the top of the fort, the countryside providing background for the picture. Smith was using a sound camera.

"The Viet Cong were in a nearby rice paddy," Smith said. "This was the third straight day we had done this and we became too enticing a target. The captain was describing the battle on film while it was going on."

Using a telephoto lens Smith had pictures of the Viet Cong as they ran thru the rice paddy and were hit by small arms fire.

Smith said he was the first civilian allowed to fly on a tactical bombing mission in a jet bomber in Vietnam.

"I went on 10 missions," he related, "Mainly because I liked them."

He flew in a B-57 Canberra, bought from Britain, which he said is the only type jet bomber the U. S. is using in Vietnam. There is room for a pilot and bombardier-navigator, he said.

"They put me thru a home-made navigator-bombardier course," he stated. "I'd go every night, for five or six hours of training. I did this for a couple of weeks on my own time."

He also spent two weeks sailing with the junk fleet and between trips lived in a thatched hut.

"You subsisted on pure Vietnam diet then," he explained, "consisting of dog, fish heads, rice and water buffalo. We weren't supposed to be armed but were ambushed so much the people we were with said, 'Go ahead and carry a sidearm.'"

The Viet Cong are notoriously poor shots, Smith said, but in one brush between them and the party Smith was with, he was hit by a piece of shrapnel.

The Cercle Sportif, at Saigon, is the club Smith was talking about--the swimming pool, tennis, handball, even a steam room. It has everything a country club has but a golf course, he said, and was the center of the French social life in Saigon.

Because the news is in Vietnam, Smith spent most of the time in the east in that land. But sometime was also spent on Japan, Okinawa, the Philippines, Thailand, Malaysia and Singapore.

AN ORDINARY DAY

We wake up at 7:30,
We wash ourselves,
'Cause we look dirty.

Comb our hair, brush our teeth,
All kids stare,
'Cause we're so neat.

We like our teacher,
'Cause she's so fine,
Mrs. Lehmann is divine.

Language, Spelling, Geography, History,
All these subjects,
Are a mystery.

When school is finally done,
We forget our work,
And have some fun.

When it's time to go to bed,
We watch T.V.
And read instead.

When it is the end of day,
We go to bed,
And dream of play.

Those Pretty Flowers Can Be Pretty Deadly

Marianne Carnahan, Will county home adviser, warns that at this time of the year the brilliant flowers, seeds and berries are a special attraction, particularly to children in the "hand-to-mouth" stage. But because many common indoor and outdoor plants are poisonous, children should be cautioned not to put any berries, seeds, fruits or leaves into their mouths unless the items have been washed and handed to them by adults.

Children should be taught that they should not put any part of any plant into their mouths. Mothers should place house plants out of the reach of small children.

Many plants can cause death if children eat enough of them. Others can cause severe pain. Difenbachia and other plants of the "dumb cane" family cause the mouth to swell so that speech is impossible.

A partial list of poisonous plants that may be common now and in the months ahead includes bittersweet, chrysanthem, rhododendron, philodendron, ivy, poinsettia, holly berries and mistletoe. Keep those plants out of the reach of small children. This advice also applies to such poisonous bulbs as tulips, lilies, daffodils and narcissus.

If a small child eats part of any plant, or is suspected of doing so, call a physician or the nearest poison control center immediately. There are 92 such centers in the emergency rooms of hospitals in Illinois, and they operate on a 24-hour basis.

Altho a plant may not be poisonous, don't wait for symptoms to develop before taking action.

Cheerleaders Are Chosen at Mokena School

On Thursday, Oct. 28, the 6th, 7th and 8th grade students of Willowcrest school chose the 1965-66 cheerleaders, by ballot. Out of 33 girls who participated in the tryouts, six cheerleaders and two alternates were chosen.

The following six compose the squad: Barb Mannell, Vicki Hafk, Becky Arnold, Shirley Janner, Debbie Fortman, and Nancy Lehmann. Carol Hanson and Judy Clark were chosen as alternates.

Self-Improvement Program Initiated By Toastmasters

A series of self-improvement techniques being incorporated in the program of the Tinley Park Toastmasters club is aimed at revealing methods on how members may become more self-motivated, improve memory, use the concept of "self-image", to develop courage and self confidence, and to have constant energy.

This program is supplementary to the regular Toastmasters' program.

It is based on the following: positive thinking, self-image, experience and creative goal striving.

This is a partial list of the sessions planned, it was announced by David Bagby, president.

The Toastmasters program is designed to give men the confidence to express themselves effectively and to develop leadership abilities.

The effectiveness of the program is evidenced by the fact that many political figures and businessmen credit the Toastmasters for their success.

The Tinley Park Toastmasters club extends an invitation to all men in the area to attend their meetings which are held the second and fourth Mondays of the month at Central school, 17248 S. 67th ave., Tinley Park. For more information call Dave Bagby at 532-2996 or John Smith 349-2633.

Honor Late Ike Cleveland For Long Service To Orland

A resolution expressing their grief over the death of Isaac (Ike) A. Cleveland, and extending their sympathy to members of his family, has been adopted by the Orland Park village board.

Mr. Cleveland, who died Oct. 25, was a former member of the village board.

The resolution, which was drafted by Village Attorney Raymond Pieper, reads:

"Know all men by these presents, that the president and board of trustees of the Village of Orland Park are deeply grieved at the death of their friend, Isaac A. Cleveland.

"Mr. Cleveland, who was affectionately called 'Ike' by his many friends, was active in the civic affairs of the Village of Orland Park and Orland township and in particular served as a member of the board of trustees of the Village of Orland Park for 38 years; and

"Whereas, Mr. Cleveland gave so many years of service to the Village of Orland

Park that gratitude is difficult to express; and

Whereas, it is only rarely that a person will devote so many years of his life to public service; and

"Whereas, this board as well as all citizens of the Village of Orland Park and Orland township, deeply appreciate the lifetime of service rendered by Mr. Cleveland to this community;

"Now, therefore, be it resolved that this resolution be adopted as a mark of our sincere respect for the memory of Isaac A. Cleveland and as a token of our heartfelt sympathy for his widow and family in their bereavement.

"Further resolved that this resolution be spread upon the minutes of the board of trustees and that a copy be sent to the family of Isaac A. Cleveland."

Sandburg Band Gives Concert Friday Night

The Carl Sandburg High School band, fresh from its marching shows, opens its season, under the direction of Milton Potter, with a concert Friday, Nov. 19.

The program is comprised of nine numbers. "Symphony For Band" by Jager, Features Paul Zeman. "Ballet Egyptian" by Luigini gives a feeling of the rhythms of the Near East veiled dancing girls. One modern selection, "Prelude and Fugue" by Livingstone will be featured as well as "The Contempora Overture" and better known selections from "Mary Poppins."

Four marches will be included in the concert. "The Footlifter"; "Them Bases", featuring the low brass section; "Buglers Holiday", which consists of a trumpet trio (Bob Negro, Rob Nebe, and Jay Brown) accompanied by the band; and "Washington Grays".

Each year, the most accomplished members of each section of the band is given the honor of becoming the section leader. This year's section leaders are; Dana LaSalle, flute; Sue Rietveld, oboe; Zay Smith, clarinet; Adrian Kotik, saxophone; Bob Negro, cornet; Jay Brown, trumpet; Carol Lanasa, French horn; Buddy Paulus, baritone; Roberta Novak, trombone; Frank Bischoff, bass; and Paul Zeman, drums.

Multiple Dwellings Topic Of Interest To Frankfort Board

The Frankfort zoning and planning boards were to meet with the village board on Tuesday night to discuss various changes that have been suggested for the zoning code.

The plan commission suggests that the village board amend the ordinance to provide for multiple dwellings in a special zone. It recommends that R-1 classification be retained for single family dwellings and a new classification, R-1-A be set up to cover two-family dwellings. Any building with more than two families would fall under R-3 classification - multiple dwelling.

The village board had suggested such divisions previously and is expected to go along with the recommendation.

The plan commission recommends three locations as suitable for multiple dwellings - Lincoln Lane, which is along U.S. 30 where apartment buildings already stand; north of Nebraska street to the railroad and east to Linden drive; east of Center rd. north of the railroad tracks.

Hereafter, it was decided, notices of zoning hearings will carry the name of the owner of the property involved and its location by street and number. Village Attorney August Santoro said that while the zoning ordinance does not require such information to be published in notices of zoning hearings he believes it should be included as a matter of public information and that he would draw notices to conform with this thought.

Plan Storm Sewer For Utah Street

Addition of a storm sewer to the improvement of Utah st. was approved by the Frankfort village board at its regular meeting Monday night. Village Engineer Robert Hamilton was instructed to contact the state district highway engineer at Elgin with the proposal that the work be made a part of the street improvement program contract and negotiate same with the contractor on the job. The Utah paving job is under the motor fuel tax program.

A storm sewer is necessary there, according to Trustee Lynn Kohlhausen, head of the street committee, because the old tile line that formerly served the purpose is inadequate -- and in some stretches no longer exists. Kohlhausen and Mayor Glenn Warning both said they have received numerous complaints from homeowners along the street that surface water is backing up in their basements. That someone along the street is guilty of violation of the law requiring sanitary wastes being channeled into the village sanitary sewer system, it was pointed out to the board, lies in the fact that raw sewage has been found in the tile line intended to carry off surface water.

Hamilton is working out the details of the proposed improvement -- size of tile and manholes, etc. Mayor Warning said if the work is to be done it should be done before the re-paving of Utah street is completed.

The village board has set June 1 as the date when all repairs needed to the sanitary sewer system, as indicated thru recent smoke tests, must be completed.

The smoke, forced into the mains, section by section, comes pouring out of gutters if downspouts are connected with the sanitary sewer, or up thru the ground if there are breaks or gaps in the sewer mains.

It is unlawful to connect downspouts with sanitary sewers, according to state law, and violations are punishable by fines, with every day the violation occurs counted as a separate offense.

There are 21 cases found thus far in which downspouts apparently are connected with the sanitary sewer.

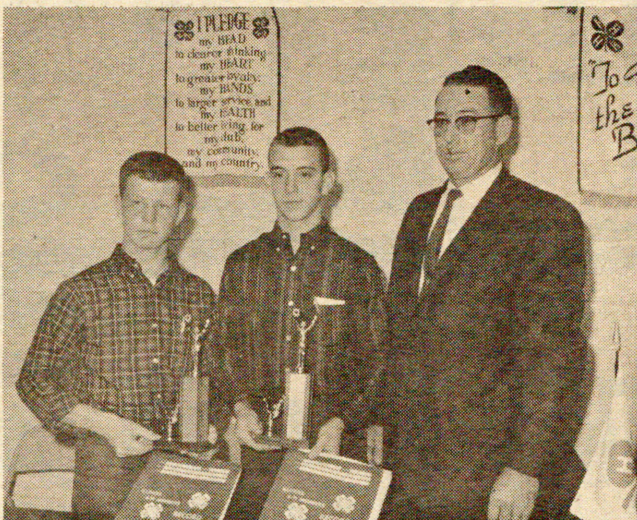

The tests indicating breaks or gaps in the sewer line pose a problem in that such lines would serve as channels to carry off surface water. There are spots where the mains themselves apparently leak, it was explained, but mostly such a condition shows up on the private property of sewer users.

The board set the tap on fee for water for the Mobil Foam Products plant at $800, which represents what is said to be the actual cost to the village for material and labor in making this tap. Mobil is bringing an 8-inch line into their plant but is not likely to be much of a water user, the board was told. Mobil is making an 8-inch tap. A three-quarter inch tap is used for households and the tap on fee for residences is $150; if a larger tap is used for a household the extra cost of providing same is added to the $150 fee, it was explained.

In the case of industries and large commercial users the ordinance provides that the village board shall consider each case as it comes up and set the tap-on fee. In cases where automatic sprinklers are used the village board also sets a flat annual fee for the water.

The village is not trying to make money on tap-ins, board members stated, but neither does it want to be out money on such work. Last June the board tentatively set the tap-on fee for Mobil home at $250 plus the cost of labor and material over what it would be for a three-quarter inch tap.

4-H RECORD BOOK trophies were presented to John Chestnut, Jr., (left) and David Ebert, both of Mokena, by John Hartnell, (right) for Country Life and Mutual insurance companies. Both boys are members of the New Lenox Hayshakers 4-H club. They were chosen because of their record books. Mr. Hartnell instituted the trophies to encourage better record keeping.

Monday night it decided that the total fee would be $800.

At the same time it fixed the fee for a two-inch tap for the K. & K. Concrete Co. when it hooks-up the water at its new plant site on Center rd., at $200. K. & K. already has paid for the labor and material on the portion of the work that is in, it was explained.

Plan Dinner To Honor Houlihan

A committee made up of civic, business and professional leaders is planning a dinner for State Representative John J. Houlihan, of Will county. The affair is scheduled for 7 p.m. Dec. 1, at Cantigny post (VFW) hall, 367 Horseshoe drive, Joliet.

Houlihan, who was elected to the legislature on the Democratic ticket in the last general election. According to Lester Frankford, general chairman of arrangements for the dinner, Houlihan was sponsor or co-sponsor in advancing 60 items of legislation to passage dealing with community betterment and improved law enforcement without regard for any special interest group.

One of his bills that became a law provides for placing county police on a merit rather than a patronage basis. The Will county board of supervisors has approved use of such a system here.

Tickets may be purchased from Miss Barbara Ginnetti at the courthouse in Joliet.

S.D.C. Committee Gets Progress Report

The recent meeting of the Southwest Development Committee heard several progress reports given on various committee projects. According to Chairman Kenneth Webster, Tinley Park, the committee is now working in several areas, which he hopes will help the development of the Southwest suburbs. These areas include highway development, industrial planning, and community problems. Other subcommittees currently functioning within the organization are projects committee, state and national affairs constitution development, and finances.

Of major interest to the committee was the recent resolution passed by twenty-five Illinois Jaycee chapters at the recent District 12 meeting held in Tinley Park. The resolution commends the committee for its previous efforts and gives its support to their future endeavors. The Jaycees further recognized the need for the completion of Interstate 80 between Hazelcrest and Joliet, and encouraged the committee to continue its efforts toward this goal.

Maurice P. Angland, Mokena, chairman of the highway development committee, reported on the progress of Interstate 80 and read correspondence which he has received. He cited a letter from Frank W. Boege, executive director of the Illinois state toll highway commission. The letter concurred with the committee's feelings as to the immediate completion of the "missing link". He stated that final construction contracts would be awarded on Feb. 10, 1966, with actual work to begin as soon thereafter as weather permits. Mr. Angland also held in his possession a letter from Representative John C. Kluczynski, (5th Dist.) recognizing the need for the rapid construction of this highway. In conclusion, Mr. Angland revealed that all available information points toward a late 1966 or early 1967 completion of this vital portion of highway.

The committee next voted to take a stand against the proposed barrow pit (where dirt, sand or gravel has been removed in road building) to be located at 177th St. and west of Cicero Avenue. In doing so the committee supported recent actions by the village boards of Country Club Hills and

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE VILLAGE OF NEW LENOX, COUNTY OF WILL, and THE STATE OF ILLINOIS:

The recital of illustrative inclusions under the above definitions are by way of example rather than limitations.

SECTION 3:
Accumulation of Refuse: No occupant, person, owner, owner's agent, tenant of any private, or public premise shall permit refuse to accumulate on such premises, except in covered containers, or as provided herein after; and all such refuse should be removed once every seven days or oftener if necessary to protect the health of the inhabitants of the Village of New Lenox.

SECTION 4:

A. Every occupant, person, owner, owner's agent or tenant in possession of any house, building, flat or apartment in the Village of New Lenox, shall at all times maintain in good order and repair a container or containers for garbage, refuse and ashes. Filthy, leaking or defective receptacles should be cleaned, repaired or replaced as directed by the appropriate representatives of the Village of New Lenox. A container shall be a can of galvanized iron of non-corrodible material, rodent-proof type commonly sold as a garbage can, of a suitable gauge and construction to insure durability, so constructed that the openings at the top shall be larger than the bottom, of a capacity of not less than 10 gallons or more Hazelcrest. They sighted the many hazards involved with this type of development. However, the committee would reconsider this decision, if the construction company involved would guarantee that the barrow pit would be eventually developed as a recreation facility with a residential area included.

The next meeting of the Southwest Development Committee will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 1, at the Bremen Town Hall, 163rd and Kedzie avenue, Markham. The meeting will begin at 8:00 p.m. and will be followed by an interesting and informative program.

than 30 gallons.

SECTION 6:

All refuse shall be collected from alleys wherever possible and wherever the person desiring to dispose of such refuse owns or inhabits property abutting a passable alley, said refuse shall be deposited at said alley for collection. When no alley abuts, the premises where said refuse is to be collected, then said collection shall be made from the curb immediately in front of said premises.

SECTION 7:

No refuse, which is to be deposited for collection at any curb, shall be so placed more than twenty-four hours prior to the collection day, and no container shall so remain at the curb or alley twenty-four hours after said collection.

SECTION 8:

SHORT AND SWEET

Twenty-five per cent of all people are accident prone and can be detected, according to a 65-year old professor who has spent most of his life looking for people who have accidents
... Dr. Hans Hahn of Transylvania College in Lexington, Kentucky picks out those who are prone by administering deceptively simple tests which pinpoint a person's safety margin.
In tests with driving simulators, he asks the blindfolded subjects to approach a cliff coming to a dead stop. In a laboratory test, a person must press a button when alternate light flashes and bell signals are mixed ...

In others, a subject is asked to point out a specific number from one to 100 in a five-minute period and to add long columns of figures for an hour ...
The tests reveal the effects of fatigue, strain and boredom and their relationship to accident proneness ... Dr. Hahn's ultimate goal is to develop therapy for the accident prone ... But, it will not be easy, he believes that the tendency toward accidents "is something you are born with and it may be you can never get rid of it"
... In a five-year safety study devoted to traffic accidents, the Harvard Fatal Highway Collisions Project determined that the most common single cause of car accidents involved failure of some part of the car because of maintenance ...

Political campaign buttons date back to the reign of Alexander the Great in 4 B.C. ...
The Macedonian ruler sent silver buttons to constituents to gain their support ... A presidential campaign is believed to have popularized the expression "O.K." ... When Martin Van Buren ran unsuccessfully for re-election in 1840, a "Democratic O.K. Club" in New York supported him. The initials stood for "Old Kinder-hook," Van Buren's home village near Albany, New York ...
Ohio which once had more than 2,000 covered bridges, now has only 212½—the half bridge is so counted because the other half is in Indiana ...
Contrary to the popular belief that the Olympics are patterned after a distance race in the ancient Greek games, the present-day marathon commemorates the feat of a Greek courier who ran and climbed his way from the plain of Marathon to Athens to announce the Greek victory over the Persians in 490 B.C.

BUSINESS & FINANCE

MAURICE ANGLAND

Once again we find ourselves defending the private sector and the reasons appear sound. The government has asked for an investigation of telephone rates and it may even be that they are too high; however, the business community generally is grateful that this important utility is handled by privately owned companies and, as such, has provided a most efficient service to businesses and homes.
Whereas, regular mail delivery in this country required a 3¢ stamp in the post-war era, prices now have advanced to 5¢. On the other hand, a day rate call via telephone from Chicago to New York in 1953 cost $1.50 for three minutes and now can be made for $1.40 or as low as 70¢ after 8:00 P.M., which means that reductions have actually occurred. It used to be that two or three mail deliveries were completed per day, whereas now neighborhood service is on a once-per-day basis and mail sometimes is not received before early afternoon. Air-mail letters sent from New York and Washington to midwestern destinations, such as Chicago, sometime take two days and cross-country airmail delivery often requires three or four days.
THE ZIP CODE SYSTEM HAS FLOPPED AND PROBABLY IS RESPONSIBLE FOR DELAYS IN AS MUCH AS IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR INDIVIDUALS AND OFFICES
TO ACCURATELY DESIGNATE FIVE - DIGIT NUMBERS FOR all sections of the country. Perhaps the government should do some soul - searching or investigate the post office department, which is a segment of our country that is most heavily subsidized; whereas, the telephone company, which offers a smile with their service increases earnings almost annually and taxes paid from this most efficient enterprise help reduce losses incurred from the government - operated post office.

Markets were firm in the early part of the session. It

Will Co. GOP Plans
$50-A-Plate Dinner

A dinner with members of the Illinois Republican congressional delegation will precede the Dec. 1, Will County GOP fund-raising dance, says State Rep. W.
Robert Blair, general chairman.

Both the dinner and the dance will be at D'Amico's 214 in Joliet. The dual event marks the opening of the Republican's campaign for the 1966 elections.

Reserved dinner tickets,
priced at $50 per person,
have been distributed to area ticket chairmen and Will County Republican leaders.
Dinner tickets may be secured by mail from ticket
chairman James Grumley, 4 E. Clinton, Joliet. All checks should be made payable to the Will County Republican Central Committee.

Special guest-of-honor at both the dinner and dance will be Republican Whip Congressman Leslie C. Arends, of the 17th District. Under reapportionment Will County is divided between Arends' district and the 14th District served by incumbent Repub-was disclosed that the United Arab Republic had purchased nearly $6 million worth of corn from the U.S.

during the summer months, paying for it in dollars in order to pave the way for obtaining further U.S. surplus food shipments to be paid for with Egyptian currency. By making the dollar purchase last summer, Nasser apparently felt that he was making amends for his violation of an earlier surplus food agreement which was violated to the extent that Egypt exported an excess amount of rice to the Communist world, including the Soviet Union, Cuba and China.

New figures indicate that Russia's wheat production this year was in the neighborhood of 58 million metric tons, compared with their production return in 1963 of about 50 million tons. Last year's output was 74 million tons, which shows that their needs are perhaps in excess of foreign purchases made to date. The Commerce Department issued export

Mothers Of Air Force
Members Organize Club

In recognition of the youths serving in the United States Air Force, a new club has been formed in the Joliet area. The club is composed of Mothers whose sons and daughters are in this branch of service and is called the Air Force Mothers Club.

At present, club members represent the Joliet, Lockport, Morris, New Lenox and Plainfield.

Installation of officers were conducted at a recent meeting held in the new Harwood American Legion post
headquarters on Larkin Road, Joliet. Under the supervision of Sergeant Moore, of the Joliet recruiting office, the following members were seated by Sergeant Spencer and assisted by Mrs. Velda Ritter and Mrs. Betsy King of the Elgin chapter No. 8: Mrs.

licenses to East Germany and Bulgaria for the purchase of over $1 million worth of feed grains. All of the above is part of changing world patterns indicating what we have constantly discussed in this letter, namely, that some foreign countries are going to rely more and more upon the North American Continent
for food necessities and part of the foreign policy of the U.S. government will be to use surplus commodities for the purpose, hopefully, of doing the most good throughout the world. It was just reported that approximately 600,000 bu. of soybeans were sold to Hungary for shipment in December via the Gulf and that license had already been issued.

A private crop forecast placed the soybean yield at 858 million bu. basis November 1st conditions or 4 million under the October gov-
duction was projected at 4,149 million bu. or about 50 million less than the most recent official estimate.
Traders pretty much ignored the figures as there was no surprise. A few hedges appeared in both pits. Concerning winter wheat acreage the same source suggests reductions in planted acreage this fall in red wheat sections and increases in the Northwest. However, a year ago farmers planted heavily knowing that they might plow up considerable accounts due to legislative uncertainties. It might be that harvested land might be larger next summer due to the present program and higher free market levels.

Secretary of State Rusk has indicated that new requests from Communist countries for export licenses would be considered but no such inquiries have been made outside of the East German sale yesterday.
Soybean inspections for export when posted Monday afternoon could be a little higher than the 8 1/2 million
bu. figure of a year ago and Chicago wheat stocks could decrease 1/2 million bu.
during the week while local soybean supplies might increase over 2 1/2 million bu.

HINTS FOR HOMEOWNERS

BY: RICHARD DeLANO
ASSISTANT COOK COUNTY
FARM ADVISER

If you'd like to create that dream landscape for your home start now. This is just the season for planting shrubs, trees, and evergreens. Set out in the next few weeks they will become established before winter and ready for vigorous growth next spring. Fall planting also takes advantage of the cool pleasant gardening weather. All too often soils are so water filled in the spring that they are unworkable and planting must be delayed.

Regardless of when you plant proper planting is important. Be sure to dig a hole twice as wide and six inches deeper than the plant's root system. You don't have to remove burlap from balled-in plants, just loosen it at the top. However, remove plastic wrappings.

Add good soil such as a mixture of three parts topsoil and one part peat moss.
Don't pack it around the new plant with your feet. This will make the soil too tight and compact. Settle the soil in place with water instead.

Recent studies show that some fertilizer can be applied at this time also.
However, fertilizer improperly applied at planting time causes more plant failure than any other single cause. Fertilization directions are simple. Apply one and a half to two pounds of a 10-5-5 or 10-6-4 fertilizer to the surface of each 100 square feet of shrubbed.

After planting, water the evergreens well and continue to water them until the ground freezes. After the ground has froze apply a mulch two or more inches deep.

Finally don't trim your evergreens at this time. It can possibly force soft tender growth that will winter kill easily. You can however delay light pruning until Christmas and use the clippings in your decorations.

In addition to new evergreens, established plants are currently receiving some attention. Many people are alarmed because the older inner needles of the evergreens are turning brown and dropping.

The hardwoods have just completed the process of shedding their leaves, a fact that people accept.

Fall is an active season for evergreen.
